TO WHOM SOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

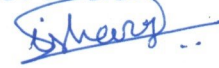

This is to certify that Ms. Sonal Panda successfully completed an internship with OpenRAG.in from May 2025 to July 2025.

During the internship, she contributed to the project focused on the RAG (Retrieval-Augmented Generation) model and Agentic AI. She was also actively involved as a beta tester for the company's deployed Android mobile application, providing valuable feedback and support during its pre-launch phase.

We appreciate her dedication, learning attitude, and contributions during the internship period, and we wish her success in future endeavors.
